

Business Administration

UConn School of Business 2022 | Regional Campus

Business School
Business Admin
Five Year Data

Employment
Rate 3 Months
Following
Graduation
(all business majors)

88%

The Business Administration major is intended to prepare business leaders who are effective general managers with expertise in managerial communications, finance, management, and marketing

100% Business Administration majors work in the Northeast (2022)

UCONN Mean (3 year)
$49,607

UCONN Median (5 year)
$54,000

UCONN High (5 year)
$72,800

UCONN Median Sign-on Bonus (5 year)
$3,500

UCONN High Sign-on Bonus (5 year)
$4,000

Highest Salary
(Past 5 years)

$72,800

Mean Salary
(Past 3 years)

$51,853

About Busn Admin Degree

Busn. Administration Is for You

An advantage of Business Administration is that it is not industry-specific. Students are equipped to be leaders in Finance, Marketing, Communications, Human Resources, and more. The US Bureau of Labor Statistics forecasts 151,100 new general operations manager job opportunities in varying industries. 4+1 program encouraged

Top 2 Employment Industries for BUSN Admin Majors (5 year)

Key Employers

- Aetna | CVS Health
- CDW Resources
- MBI, Inc.
- Morgan Stanley
- Point 72 Asset Management
- The Travelers Companies
- TTM Technologies
- Webster Bank

Positions

- Account Development Manager
- Accounting Clerk II
- Assistant Team Leader
- Assistant Manager
- Associate, General Mngr. Program
- Branch Associate
- Human Resources Assistant
- Logistics Supply Chain Specialist
- Purchasing Buyer

Employment Locations After Graduation

* 6.06% of students reported outcomes outside US (5 year)

